

College of Engineering and Computer Science (ECS) Professional Development Seminars (PDS) Spring 2016

Technical Development + Career Development + Professional Development = Engineering
Grit (Relentless Pursuit of Goals) Success

All seminars are held from 9:00am-11:00am in the University Union

Date	Topic	Speaker	Organization/Title	Location
April 1	Core Competencies That STEM Employers Expect: Are You Prepared?	Jaime White	College of ECS	Orchard Suite (second floor)
April 8	Making Good Choices: Ethics for STEM Professionals	John Gisla, J.D.	Professor	Orchard Suite (second floor)
April 15	Storytelling for Impact and Action	Monica Eisel	Eisel Consulting	Forest Suite (second floor)
April 22	Project Management: What Does That Really Mean?	Gary Slavitt	HR Management Consultant	Hinde Auditorium (first floor)
April 29	The Quality Management Imperative for STEM Professionals	Cynthia Brown	HP Marketing Engineering Manager	Orchard Suite (second floor)
May 6	Practical Leadership: Where Are the Leaders?	Harlan Coomes	SMUD	Foothill Suite (third floor)

Participants attending 5 or 6 seminars will receive a certificate signed by the Dean of ECS.

ECS PDS are co-sponsored by the Faculty Student Mentor Program (FSMP) and the College of ECS. Questions? Contact (916) 278-6699