

College of Engineering and Computer Science (ECS) Professional Development Seminars (PDS) Spring 2018

$$\left(\begin{matrix} \textit{Engineering} \\ \textit{Success} \end{matrix} \right) = \left(\begin{matrix} \textit{Technical Development} + \\ \textit{Career Development} + \\ \textit{Professional Development} \end{matrix} \right) \left(\begin{matrix} \textit{Grit} + \\ \textit{Coachability} + \\ \textit{Resourcefulness} \end{matrix} \right)$$

All seminars are held from 9:00am-11:00am in the University Union

Date	Topic	Speaker/Title	Organization	Location
February 2	Core Competencies That STEM Employers Expect: Are You Prepared?	Jaime White Coordinator	College of ECS ECS Student Services Hub	Hinde Auditorium (first floor)
February 9	Making Good Choices: Ethics for STEM Professionals	John Gisla, J.D. Retired Attorney	US Army JAG, U.S. Army Corps, U.S. Attorney Office	Hinde Auditorium (first floor)
February 16	Managing Conflict in the Workplace	Karen Harold Conflict Coach	Conflict Coaching Co.	Hinde Auditorium (first floor)
February 23	Project Management: What Does That Really Mean?	Gary Slavit, PMP HR Consultant	(Independent Consulting)	Hinde Auditorium (first floor)
March 9	How to Succeed in the High Tech Industry	Cynthia Brown R&D Director	Hewlett-Packard Co.	Hinde Auditorium (first floor)
April 6	Emotional Intelligence, Time Management and Personal Productivity	Lee Scott CEO	Unleashing Leaders, Inc.	Hinde Auditorium (first floor)

Participants attending 5 or 6 seminars will receive a certificate signed by the Dean of ECS.

ECS PDS are co-sponsored by the Faculty Student Mentor Program (FSMP) and the College of ECS. Questions? Contact (916) 278-6699