

CSC 245. Performance Modeling and Evaluation. Performance and cost measures; software and hardware performance monitors; data reduction and evaluation; analytic and simulation models of hardware and program behavior; performance-cost trade-offs and resource allocation.
Prerequisite: Fully classified graduate status in Computer Science or Software Engineering. 3 units.